APPENDIX---1915

Twelve years have passed since the former edition of this "study" was printed. I have secured many items of interest since then, some confirming old information, others entirely new. I have in this revision incorporated some of these, but have had to leave out many more, not to make the sketch too long.

Our eldest daughter, Clare Malone Covington, has three other children, Loretta Stokes, born November 2, 1906; Laurin Thomas, born July 31, 1909; Charles Franks, born August 26, 1911. Her husband is a son of Charles F. and Mary Jane (Barentine) Covington, grandson (on mother's side) same as Clare. On father's side, grandson of Robert and Martha (Thomas) Covington, great-grandson of Thomas and Sarah (Cook) Covington, great-great-grandson of James and Sarah (McDaniel) Cook.

Elise was married June 19, 1906, to Robert Julian Sifford of North Carolina. Born October 20, 1874; son of Daniel M. and Frances (Moore) Sifford; grandson of John Sifford. His mother was a daughter of James Moore, son of Alexander Moore, brother of Gen. John Moore, of the Revolution.

Marion graduated at Wofford in 1903. February 15, 1905, he married Pauline, daughter of Charles M. and Mary (Bynum) Davis. She was the daughter of Thos. Jefferson Bynum. Mr. Davis is son of Thos. Jefferson and Susan (Platt) Davis. He the son of Thos. Jefferson Davis, Sr. Miss Platt was a daughter of David Platt. The Platts were of Colleton county.
